

John O. Riley

Work: 907.786.6570
johnriley@acsalaska.net

Education

Hopkins Business of Medicine Executive Certificate	Johns Hopkins School of Medicine, 2000
Bachelor of Science, Physician Assistant	University of Wisconsin, Madison, 1982 -1984
Master of Science, Zoology	University of Wisconsin, Madison, 1979 -1982
Bachelor of Science, Zoology	University of Wisconsin, Madison, 1970 -1974

Employment

Coordinator, Physician Assistant Program May 2002 – Present
University Of Alaska Anchorage, Anchorage, Alaska. Clinical Instructor in Health Sciences Department and Coordinator of Physician Assistant Program.

Lecturer, MEDEX Northwest May 2002 – Present
University Of Washington, Seattle, Washington. Lecturer in School of Medicine, MEDEX Physician Assistant Program.

Medical Co-Director July 1996 – May 2002
Anchorage Neighborhood Health Center, Anchorage, Alaska. Co-managed clinical staff of eight physicians and seven midlevel practitioners serving 18,000 primarily low-income clientele. Responsibilities include leading clinical department meetings, oversight of clinical quality care program, administrative supervision of clinical staff, liaison to community health organizations and long range planning.

Physician Assistant October 1988 - Present
Anchorage Neighborhood Health Center, Anchorage, Alaska. Family Practice clinic serving primarily low-income clientele. Diagnosis and treatment of infant to elderly patients, special programs providing comprehensive treatment for diabetes, hypertension, heart disease and HIV infection. Part of position includes providing medical care at clinics set up in several homeless shelters.

Instructor May 1987 - October 1988
Indian Health Service, Community Health Aide Program, Anchorage, Alaska. Taught community health aides who provide primary health care in rural Alaska. Instruction included primary medical care, preventive health practices and health administration. Position also involved providing primary health care in outpatient clinic as required for maintenance of staff privileges at Alaska Native Medical Center.

Physician Assistant August 1986 - February 1987
Parkgate Family Practice, Eagle River, Alaska. General practice and emergency care including suturing, splinting and casting, minor surgery, reading EKGs and x-rays, performing laboratory procedures, general as well as gynecologic, orthopedic and cardiovascular examinations.

Physician AssistantMay 1985 - July 1986

Fairweather Inc., Anchorage, Alaska. Solo provider of routine and emergency medical care to oil workers and support personnel on remote sites.

Physician AssistantSeptember 1985 - February 1986

Med Alaska, Anchorage, Alaska. Minor emergency care and family practice. Part time position.

Physician AssistantNovember 1984 - May 1985

Anchorage Neighborhood Health Center, Anchorage, Alaska. Locum tenens.

Other ExperienceVolunteer Medical Provider*October 1988 - Present

Brother Francis Shelter. Homeless shelter in Anchorage, Alaska. Provided medical care to residents of homeless shelter at weekly evening shelter clinic.

Patient Advocate/Information and Referral1981-1982

Madison Community Health Center, Madison, Wisconsin.

Teaching Assistant1980-1982

Department of Zoology, University of Wisconsin, Madison. Taught introductory Laboratory course in zoology. Responsible for development of teaching materials, weekly lectures and grading.

Service Activities

Alaska Center for Public Policy Board of Directors, 2005 - present
President - Elect Alaska Public Health Association, 2006
Board member Alaska Public Health Association, 2003 - present
Faculty Senate, University of Alaska Anchorage, 2003 – 2004
Faculty, Alaska Diabetes Collaborative, Sponsored by ProWest, 2000 - 2001
Pacific West Chronic Disease Collaborative Steering Committee member, 1999 – present
Board President, Alaska Primary Care Association, 1998 - 2003
Anchorage Access to Health Care Coalition Steering Committee Member, 1999 – present
Municipality of Anchorage DHHS Physical Health Subcommittee, 1997 - 1999
Board member, Northwest Regional Primary Care Association, 1997 - 2003
Chair, Clinicians Network, Northwest Regional Primary Care Association, 1996 - 1999
Vice-President, Alaska Primary Care Association, 1996 - 1998
Mountain View Health Clinic Medical Advisory Board, 1996 - 2000
Chair, Health Care Coalition of Alaska, 1994 - 2000
Governor's Transition Team on Health Care Reform, State of Alaska, 1995
Representative to State Medical Board, Alaska Academy of Physician Assistants, 1993 - 1995
State Legislative Coordinator, Alaska Academy of Physician Assistants, 1993 - 1996
President, Alaska Academy of Physician Assistants, 1993
Board of Directors, Alaska Academy of Physician Assistants, 1989 -1992
State of Alaska Impaired Practitioner Recovery Network Committee, 1990 - 1995

Certification

Nationally certified Physician Assistant, NCCPA
Licensed Physician Assistant, State of Alaska

Honors and Awards

Barbara Berger Award "Excellence in Public Health" Award ALPHA 2005
Rainbow Award "Promoting Primary Care Access" APCA 2005
Excellence in Leadership Award, NACHC 2000
Outstanding Clinical Service Award, NWRPCA, 1999
Indian Health Service Merit Award, 1988
University League Scholarship, University of Wisconsin, 1984
Davis Fellowship, University of Wisconsin, Madison, 1980 -1981

References

Available upon request

Recent Professional Presentations

Improving Chronic Disease Care: The Role for PA Educators. American Academy of Physician Assistants Conference, Las Vegas, Nevada. June 2, 2004.

Improving Chronic Disease Care. All Alaska Medical Conference, October 7, 2004.

Introduction to the Chronic Disease Collaboratives. Alaska Public Health Association, December, 2004